alissaswedlow One of my favorite things about my job is collaborating with others. This is a fun stationery project I did for @sharelove.fund - an organization started by a high school friend to provide free yoga teacher training to women to help empower them. They work with women who are in difficult situations and give them the tools to start a new profession and make a positive change in their lives. I'm so proud to be a part of this! In their shop they sell my stationery (along with other goods like t-shirts and sweatshirts) and the proceeds are used to buy the equipment that the women will need to start their new career. I'm so grateful to have friends in my life who are out there making a difference! Visit @sharelove.fund for more info and to help make a difference for one of these women!
