Ashley Share and Gregory Jakubowsky

Ashley and Greg grew up on the water – Ashley sailed on her family’s sailboat at the California Yacht Club in Marina Del Rey and Greg learned about boating and fishing on Candlewood Lake in Connecticut. They moved to Rye with their son and two daughters who attend the French American School of New York. Russell, Mia, and Julia discovered their love of sailing at summer camp in Maine and want to continue to learn. Russell in particular hopes to become a competitive sailor through JAYC.
