Catherine:

We have the police report. You made such a scene in front of Jojo when all she was trying to do was enjoy her ice skating lesson that a third-party called Larchmont PD. Thereafter you refused to provide a statement, continued your hysterics, embarrassed your daughter (and yourself) so much so that you were escorted out of the establishment by 4 police officers. If you feel that this should be brought to the court's attention, so be it. How does any of this help you repair your relationship with the kids?

Mr. Dimopoulos:

This e-mail shall constitute notice to you pursuant to 22 NYCRR 202.7(f) of my intention to file an emergency motion on Monday March 20, 2023 at 9 am requesting the following relief from Judge Capeci:

1. An order of protection in my favor and in the Children's favor against your client; and
2. Together with all such other and further relief which this Court deems just and proper.

This will be your only notice of the above referenced motion. Have a pleasant day.
