Good morning

I don't know if you got my text on Thursday. You and I had discussed adding an extra day for Charlotte.

Charlotte and I were supposed to meet at 3:30 on Thursday. I had told her on Tuesday and I thought you had told her as well. When I called her on Thursday when she didn't show up she said she didn't know and that no one had told/reminded her. She was busy and doing something and truthfully, I didn't want to make this an unpleasant experience and force her when she so clearly didn't want to so I said "okay". Not sure what you want to do going forward. I really feel that the 2 x a week might help us. I feel she is a bit more distant from me, less involved, and spends more time saying she misses her mommy. I know this is a tough time in many ways for her. I thought the extra time might be helpful to get closer to her. I will do anything that will help. In-person helps a bit--but I am afraid it is now too cold to do that. I am still not going into my office or seeing people in person other than your children when I go to your home. I am not comfortable going inside until the vaccines are available. I am sorry!

Just let me know what you think. This coming Thursday I don't have the 3:30 time but could do 4:00 session.

LMK if you want to talk.
Best
Susan
