Subject: RE: Kassenoff v. Kassenoff Index No. 58217/2019

Carol,

I know you have not worked with me before. I am generally not someone who tells people how to do their jobs or looks to escalate conflicts.

But I've attached Mr. Dimopoulos' emails to Chava White and Carlos Malave where HE is telling them he and his client will not permit a visit or calls after Ms. Kassenoff confirmed them. Over a v be demonstrably false. Why are you looking to protect this father at all costs? Why do you not recognize the harm that is being done to your clients and make some effort to rectify this? Why ca What is your motivation in participating in this campaign to destroy their childhoods, which as Marcia noted, they will remember for the rest of their lives? You do not have to love our client to re advocate for them.

Every other AFC I have ever dealt with may recognize that the parties in a given case are flawed individuals in some way, but they always support some level of unsupervised or liberal contact with the children. I question the motivation or rationale here. I question the end goal. Why are you so invested in stripping everything away from this mother and why can Mr. Kassenoff do no wrong in your eyes? Mr. Kassenoff has done from impeding visits or calls for weeks to leaving children starving and fending for themselves for 2 weeks, essentially being cared for by an 11 year old, or retaliating against the mother by refusing to give them gifts sent by the other parent, or bringing a paramour into the home on a regular basis and exposing the children to sexual activity, or refusing to pay tuition on a timely manner, or countless other things that have happened, I'm confident they would have lost custody of their children. Yet you protect him at all costs. Do you really believe that these things are good for you?

I have never seen such a stubborn refusal to remove supervision either. Usually I cannot get supervision even with significant safety concerns. I have never seen an insistence that a party pay for continuing supervision in the long term. I have a case right now where we just retrieved a young child from Uzbekistan, kept there for a year due to the father's actions, and I am having a hard time here it appears that you will never support removing supervision. Why? Bottom line, your clients love their mother. They want their mother and are being kept from their mother. You have a leg

I am not asking this to be sarcastic or facetious or to try to further escalate matters. I am genuinely at a loss.

You told the girls their Mother is dangerous to them. When you had no basis to state that as a fact. To a child that means physically dangerous-that the Mother would harm them. You had no basis to tell your clients, and failure to advocate for them, is a breach of your duty to them, to say the least I am sure they will never forget you and all you have done to hurt them, and to destroy their bond

Counsel, You have obstructed in person Court Ordered Supervised visits by cancelling the last two scheduled visits and refusing to proceed with further visits this coming Tuesday. I want confirmation today.

Again, you have no right to impose conditions on Supervision Services and refuse to abide by the Court Order. I want your confirmation today that the Court's Order is being followed.

Ms. Most, you are not the Judge. Your position that visits should not proceed at all, unless they proceed with your own concept of consistency, goes beyond what you advocate for their wishes- which you refuse to do. You have no authority to impose conditions on your clients' desired access with their Mother. Also, we have the Father's attorney's email doing so in retaliation for the CPS investigation based on his speculation that the Mother triggered the investigation. You have the Father does not supervise appropriate hygiene in the home? He did not advise the Mother of this, Ally did.

Again, I want to see confirmation today that the Court's Order for the Mother's parental access is being followed.

Carlos,

I have now had occasion to watch all videos in the Google Drive. In January, the following were uploaded for January as follows: 1/3, 1/4, 1/6, 1/8, 1/10, 1/14, 1/17, 1/20, 1/22, 1/24, and 1/25. In February, the following were uploaded: 2/4, 2/5, 2/10, 2/11 and 2/18. I note that you are still trying to upload 2 written reports for 2/21. Other than as set forth above, can you please confirm if there are any further recordings to upload for January and February?

Thank you.

Good Morning, February videos are uploaded. 2/19 is being recovered as the video while it was converting and 2/21 is not salvageable as we had tech issues. I will have 2/21 by tomorrow as the monitors have up to 48 hours to type the reports. I have a back up to record but it doesn't always work out. We will continue to work out this tech issue.
